

West Highland Line Wordsearch

Did you know that the railway line that runs from Glasgow up to Mallaig is called the West Highland Line? It's one of the most beautiful railway journeys in the world because it travels through big open moorland, in the shadows of mountains, over the famous Glenfinnan Viaduct and alongside sparkling blue lochs. People travel from all over the world to enjoy a train ride along it. The journey takes just over five hours.

Can you find some of the stations found along the West Highland Line?

Words to find:

Dalmuir	Tulloch
Garelochhead	Banavie
Ardlui	Glenfinnan
Crianlarich	Arisaig
Rannoch	Morar
Corrour	Mallaig

